

Iberseries & Latino Industria and Berlinale Series Market to Connect Ten Production Companies from Germany and Ibero-America in Series Match

Companies from Brazil, Uruguay, Chile, Spain, and Germany will take part in this new initiative aimed at boosting the development and co-production of new international series projects.

Madrid, 26 January 2026. Ten German and Ibero-American production companies have been selected to participate in Series Match: Germany & Ibero-America, a new initiative promoted by Iberseries & Latino Industria and Berlinale Series Market with the goal of fostering international collaboration and the development of early-stage series projects.

The program will take place on February 16 within the framework of the Berlinale Series Market 2026 and will bring together five companies from each territory at the Studio Babelsberg Lounge at CinemaxX. Each company will present a series project in its initial development stage, supported by professional meetings designed to facilitate creative exchange and the formation of strategic partnerships.

The selected Ibero-American production companies are Boutique Filmes and Movioca (Brazil), Altera Media (Uruguay), Villano (Chile), and Funicular Films (Spain). The German participants will be Zeitsprung, UFA, SKP Entertainment, Studio Zentral, and Beta Film.

The projects taking part in Series Match are: Seven Women (Boutique Filmes); Abuse (Federation, Ojo Films & Alterna Media); Callback (Funicular Films & Left Tackle Films); Assassin in Paradise (Movioca & Ginga Studios); Scorched Earth (Villano); Driven Hunt – The Other Truth / The Runaway (SKP Entertainment); Wetlands (UFA Fiction); and Monika – Victory or Death (Zeitsprung Pictures, Mariawood Producciones & Fine Time Filmproduktion).

With this newly curated format, Series Match: Germany & Ibero-America positions itself as a privileged space for the emergence of creative synergies, the promotion of innovative proposals, and the development of cross-border narratives with global reach. The initiative thus strengthens ties between the German and Ibero-American audiovisual markets and opens new opportunities for international co-production in the field of series.

About Berlinale Series Market

Berlinale Series Market is the international meeting point for serialized content professionals within the framework of Berlin's European Film Market.

Berlinale
EFM
European Film Market

The Berlinale Series Market, taking place from February 15 to 18, is held in principal partnership with Film- und Medienstiftung NRW. It is also supported by Medienboard Berlin-Brandenburg, with Variety as its media partner.

The European Film Market is part of Berlinale Pro, which brings together the European Film Market, the Berlinale Co-Production Market, Berlinale Talents, and the World Cinema Fund. Berlinale Pro is the festival's comprehensive industry infrastructure, serving the global film industry as an incubator, catalyst, and support platform across all stages of film and series development, production, sales, and distribution.

About Iberseries & Platino Industria

Iberseries & Platino Industria will hold its sixth edition from September 29 to October 2 at Matadero Madrid. Organized by EGEDA and Fundación Secuoya, in collaboration with FIPCA and sponsored by Madrid Film Office and Film Madrid Region, the event has established itself as a bridge between markets and a key space for promoting Spanish- and Portuguese-language talent and content within the global audiovisual landscape.

The fifth edition marked a milestone, bringing together more than 2,700 professionals from 50 countries. Looking ahead to 2026, the event maintains its objective of expanding its international reach and strengthening its role as a networking and promotional platform for the Ibero-American audiovisual industry.

More information: www.iberseriesplatinoindustria.com

ORGANIZERS

SPONSORS

SILVER PARTNER

